

THE CARNIVAL

Skip and his mom drove by the K-Mart shopping mall. Skip saw some long trucks that [rather/ seemed/ yellow] to be carrying strange machines. Skip couldn't [keep/ then/ tell] what the machines were, but he [gather/ taken/ could] tell that they were big. "Mom," [from/ asked/ down] Skip, "what are the machines on [get/ the/ was] back on the trucks?" "Why, I [read/ then/ don't] know," said Skip's mom. "We will [gate/ new/ have] to drive by tomorrow and find [the/ out/ win]."

The next day, Skip and his [yellow/ rather/ mother] drove by K-Mart again to see [bless/ rest/ what] the strange machines were. The machines [plan/ were/ grass] now set up on the ground [had/ and/ dig] Skip and his mother could see [hand/ send/ that] they were carnival rides! Skip could [ran/ had/ see] a ferris wheel, a rollercoaster and [rest/ all/ time] sorts of other rides that were [hat/ part/ even] of the carnival. "Now I see [piece/ pony/ what] these machines are," said Skip, "and they're [out/ ban/ all] part of a carnival. Can I [go/ to/ we], Mom?" asked Skip. "Well, I don't [from/ quit/ know]," said Skip's mother. "We will have [in/ at/ to] ask your father." That night when Skip's dad [nor/ got/ but] home, Skip told him all about [the/ in/ we] carnival. Skip's dad was very excited [and/ the/ rate] said that he would love to [if/ go/ or] to the carnival. Skip's mom said [that/ fight/ cave] she would rather not go and [that/ date/ were] she would stay home.

The next evening, Skip [get/ and/ for] his dad left the house to [go/ we/ it] to the carnival. When they pulled [into/ keep/ rear] the parking lot, they could see [sag/ eat/ the] bright lights and hear the music [of/ as/ so] the carnival. Skip wanted to ride [had/ rat/ the] ferris wheel first, so up they [off/ ask/ went] on the ferris wheel. Skip felt [top/ sick/ dig] and dizzy being up so high. [Is/ Of/ He] was glad when the ferris wheel finally stopped. Skip's dad [wanted/ keeper/ yellow] to go on the rollercoaster. Rolling [of/ up/ is] and down the hills made Skip [feel/ jump/ have] sick too. After they got off [dig/ the/ had] rollercoaster, Skip decided that he would [winter/ rather/ young] stay on the ground and not [yet/ won/ ride] on any more rides.

Skip and [dip/ his/ wed] dad played games and won a [for/ big/ was] stuffed bear. They ate cotton candy [is/ at/ and] drank lots of coke. As they [dig/ even/ left] the carnival late that night, Skip [very/ said/ seen], "I didn't like the rides, but I [home/ sure/ quit] did like going to the carnival."
